To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to comment on the services provided by Arthur Marshall through my workings with Nathan Baker and Louis Broussard. Over the past year, our hospital has done significant work in recruiting new physicians to join our medical staff. . . Nathan and Louis have worked shoulder-to-shoulder with us and have played a significant role in making us successful.

Louis, our primary physician recruiter, is attentive and thorough in his approach. His up front vetting of candidates saves us time and energy and produces results. I am especially pleased with the 'airport' visit as it provides the informal information about the candidates allowing us to make last minute adjustments which personalizes the visit and makes the doctor, spouse and family envision themselves at home in our small community.

Competition for new doctors is keen and Arthur Marshall has placed three doctors with Nevada Regional Medical Center over the past thirteen months. Success speaks loudly.

Most sincerely,
